

→ How to build a cohesive, top performing team and take your leadership skills to the next level, NOW.

With a cut-to-the-chase, simple, common sense, approach to solving the two most important issues facing a leader today—building a cohesive, resilient, team and differentiating yourself as a leader in a crowded marketplace—Pepper will help you identify solutions that are genuine and authentic to your personal leadership style and the challenges facing you today.

This session is not about theory. It is about a proven, practical, down-to-earth approach that creates sustainable success for you as a leader in the most challenging environment we have ever known. This is also not a soft-skills love-in, either. It is about how to use soft power to achieve results.

The MCE Business Breakfast session will cover :

- What issues under-performing teams have in common and how to overcome them no matter what industry you're in
- How to release the hidden potential in a team
- How to create an environment that ensures team cohesion
- Helping a team overcome the anxiety of: transition; downsizing; an M&A event; restructuring; increased levels of expectations in an environment of dwindling resources
- The most critical abilities a leader must have today and how to gain them
- Practical tips you can begin implementing the moment you leave the breakfast—no books to buy or seminars to attend—these things you can do NOW

This breakfast event is relevant for anyone who wants to take their leadership abilities to the next level, no matter what stage of your career you are in presently.
